

Gateway Community Charters
Common Core State Standards Implementation Timeline

2010-2011 School Year

- CA State Board of Education adopts the California Common Core State Standards.
- Informal information dissemination to various stakeholders begins.

2011-2012 School Year

- Teachers continue to teach the CA state content standards as the GCC moves toward adopting and implementing the CCSS.
- GCC offers professional learning on the CCSS.
- Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium (SBAC) begins CCSS State assessment development.

2012-2013 School Year

- GCC Principals/Teachers trained in 5 SCOE English Language Arts modules and begin implementation of ELA concepts in grades K-12.
- GCC school sites investigate and purchase CCSS curricular materials in mathematics and language arts.
- GCC school sites enhance technology and technology infrastructure.
- Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium conducts field testing for state assessments; related research and data collection begins.
- GCC continues to offer professional learning on the CCSS.

2013-2014 School Year

- GCC Principals/Teachers trained in 4 SCOE Mathematics modules and begin implementation of Mathematics in grades K-12.
- GCC implements ELA concepts in grades K-12.
- GCC school sites investigate and purchase CCSS curricular materials in mathematics and language arts.
- GCC school sites enhance technology and technology infrastructure.
- Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium conducts second year field testing for state assessments; related research and data collection begins.
- GCC continues to offer professional learning on the CCSS.
- GCC launches CCSS web page.

2014-2015 School Year

- GCC implements ELA concepts in grades K-12.
- GCC implements Mathematics concepts in grades K-12.
- GCC continues to offer professional learning on the CCSS.
- GCC school sites investigate and purchase CCSS curricular materials in mathematics and language arts.
- GCC continues to enhance technology and technology infrastructure.
- Full administrations of Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium state assessments begin.